INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO AND SONOMA.

Weekly Record of all the Happenings in the Valley as Faithfully Recorded by Our Wide-Awake Reporter, "Archie McKiver."

Louis Kearney of Bennett Valley was here Monday.

Billy Baines took in the circus at Napa on Saturday.

Emile P. Lounibos of Kenwood was here Tuesday on business.

M. Clements, a San Francisco tailor, visited his family here Monday.

Otto Spindler of San Francisco was here Sunday renewing old acquaintances.

Attorney R. A. Poppe of Sonoma transacted business at the county seat last Monday.

E. O. Gates of Sonoma transacted business at the county seat one day last week.

Dan Singleton, a San Francisco business man, was registered at the Bellevue Hotel last Sunday.

Willie Johnson, Beau Brummel of El Verano, was seen on the street Sunday with a dashing summer girl.

Mrs. Farrel and daughter of San Mateo are at their summer resort near Boyes Springs and will remain for the season.

Charley Johnson of San Francisco is a guest at the French Cottage. Charley is a leading native son of the Bay City.

Harry Baines, our well known chauffeur, pronounces business good in the automobile line. His stand is at the Bellevue Hotel this season.

The extra train on the N. W. P. Railroad brought crowds to our different summer resorts last Sunday. This train will be kept on during the summer season.

Bill Hill, mixologist at Boyes Springs Club house, was at the ball game Sunday and seemed to be more interested in a baby buggy he was wheeling than the ball game.

Miss May Bosch and Miss Myrtle Hardy, two charming young ladies of Vineburg, were in town one day last week escorted by Sonoma's Beau Brummel, Willie Peterson.

Frank Weaver, well-known prohibitionist who lives above town, drove through here last Sunday in a new top buggy. Even to the dry men things are prosperous since our summer resorts have been granted their liquor licenses.

The El Verano Development Association have a live cut on their envelopes boosting the Exposition, the Sonoma Valley and also our springs. Every little thing helps and leave it to the Association to boost 'em along.

Joe Haden, Mayor of Verano, was over Monday and says that Verano is still wet although having been pretty close to being a dry town and declared off the map there is still some hopes for the little burg being saved from the awful calamity of going dry and ruined and Joe will not resign the Mayorship.

A. P. Ringressey has been appointed postmaster at Fetters Hot Springs, the appointment being made May 10th. Mr. Ringressey runs a general merchandise store near the springs and will have his postoffice in the store. This will make three offices between Boyes Springs and Agua Caliente Springs and no doubt the mail service will be good along that line.

H. P. Mathewson transacted business in Santa Rosa last Friday.

John Serres of San Francisco was here the latter part of last week.

O. T. Wilkinson made a brief business trip to San Francisco last Friday.

Eddie Johannsen of Schellville was in town Saturday renewing old acquaintances.

Mrs. A. Gale and son George left last Saturday for a month's visit with friends and relatives in Idaho.

Henry Norrbom, our well known blacksmith, accompanied by his wife and family, motored to Santa Rosa last Friday.

Everybody is jubilant over our leading summer resorts getting their liquor licenses and it now looks as if the town is saved.

The Parente Bros. liquor license at Verano was revoked last Friday at Santa Rosa, a number of witnesses on both sides testifying. After hearing both sides the Board cancelled the license.

A large crowd of San Francisco and local fans attended an interesting ball game at Boyes Springs Sunday. The U. S. Laundry of San Francisco opposed the home team and the game was lively from start to finish. The Boyes Spring boys through errors lost the game and all credit goes to the laundry boys for the victory, as they played good ball. This is the first game lost by Boyes team. The score: U. S. Laundry 5, Boyes Springs 2.

W. P. Thrall, inspector of transportation of the S. P. Co., San Francisco, was here last Saturday conferring with the Secretary of the El Verano Development Association, T. H. Baines, and made a general tour of the Sonoma Valley interviewing the different prominent citizens in regard to putting a motor car service on over the S. P. line. He received great encouragement and it looks like the long-looked-for motor service will be installed in the near future.

There are many complaints among our business men about a number of our young men who make it a habit daily to go out on the county road near the S. P. depot store and postoffice and play ball. These fellows are old enough to know better and have succeeded so far in whirling a ball through a window in the S. P. depot, and as there are plenty of peace officers in the vicinity they should put a stop to the antics of these rowdies. If not, a complaint will be lodged against them, so better cut it out.

Now, Mr. Managing Editor of the Sonoma Valley Expositor print the names on that last petition sent in to the Honorable Board of Supervisors, as you have enlarged the reason we make this request. You will surely now have lots of room and we would all be glad to have our names in print. It's a joke for us voters, but shows how you believe in doing dirty politics. The bulldozing method is shown, but you have got to show us. We fear no one man. Go and tell it to Sweeney and get onto yourself and after you count all those signers you will begin to think your friends are few.

Walter Poulson was at the county seat last Friday.

Mrs. Chas. Ellis visited in Santa Rosa the latter part of last week.

Joe Dowdall spent Saturday and Sunday in the metropolis with friends.

The El Verano Lumber Co. received two carloads of shingles on Monday.

Miss Johanna Jones of Stockton is the guest of Mrs. T. H. Baines this week.

Albert Rossi and Charley Childs were at the circus in Santa Rosa last Friday.

John Vincent, the well-known butcher, transacted business in the Bay City Monday.

Tree inspector Johnson of Glen Ellen was at the S. P. depot Monday inspecting trees.

M. E. Cummings of Sonoma was a S. P. passenger for Santa Rosa last Sunday evening.

Chas. Spindler returned from Los Angeles last Sunday and will remain here several weeks.

H. H. Granice, editor Index-Tribune, passed through here Saturday en route to San Francisco.

Louis Parente of San Francisco was registered at Charley Miller's Villa the latter part of last week.

T. H. Baines, E. Mullen, Carl Weaver, Leo Baines and Harry Baines autoted to the City of Roses last Friday.

Lucien Pilastre, a motorman for the United Railroads, San Francisco, was the guest of relatives Sunday.

Archie Gale and family, accompanied by Miss Dowdall, motored to Santa Rosa last Friday to take in the circus.

Harry Pooler of Sonoma was in town Saturday. It is rumored that Harry is seeking the pound-mastership here.

Sonoma won from Sperry on the Sonoma Diamond Sunday. The score was Sonoma 6, Sperry Flour nine of San Francisco 1.

Geo. Block, accompanied by Miss Lucy Block and Miss Irene Baines, was in Santa Rosa Friday viewing the circus.

Miss Ruth Paul, after spending several weeks here the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Moore, returned to her San Francisco home on last Monday.

The Glen Ellen baseball team swamped the Wawona Club of San Francisco last Sunday on the Glen Ellen diamond. The score: Glen Ellen 12, Wawona Club 2.

Many of the spectators at Boyes Springs ball game Sunday mistook Art Hickman, in his new attire, for Captain H. E. Boyes, formerly owner of the Springs.

Among those who transacted business at the county seat the latter part of last week were Jack Kelly, Paul Vannucchi, Chas. Daniels, A. Martin and A. Block.

Jack London, accompanied by several friends, passed through town last Saturday in his tallyho. Holding the lines over four prancing steeds Jack set the town afire as he snapped his whip, and one and all took a look at the great writer and author and the saying was, "there goes Jack London."

Ray Button, one of the smart set of Boyes Springs, was in town last Friday. Ray is also the leading society chap at the Springs and the writer believes that he would throw the faeries at Boyes just for one of El Verano's leading society belles. Some class to this Button chap.

Every citizen in Sonoma Valley is satisfied now that all of the thirty-five room hotels were given liquor licenses at the last meeting of the Board of Supervisors. It was the wish of the people voted on at the last election and as a law it was a case of the Supervisors to come through and grant the request of the people and not listen to one or two prohibitionists who, at first, had our county fathers up a tree.

Harry Weise, our popular supervisor, accompanied by the rest of the county fathers, passed through here last Saturday in a large touring car. The writer and the citizens of Sonoma Valley take off their hats to the supervisors and wish to congratulate them on their able stand in handing out the rest of the licenses to the thirty-five room hotels. You're alright, Harry, and all the voters are with you, and if you ever ran for supervisor for a second term you will get votes that were cast for the other fellow at the last election and Archie McKiver's vote is one of them.

Mr. and Mrs. Cereghino and daughter of Glen Ellen were among the large crowd at Boyes Springs Sunday witnessing the ball game.

The Germans had the town last Saturday and Sunday. "The Mayor" turned the key over to Frank Lahaye, who with half a hundred more of a well-known Santa Rosa German Club came here on Saturday evening's train to hold their annual outing. The big thing given by Louis Lamotte in honor of the visitors, Peebles Band of San Francisco furnished the music and the El Verano dance hall was prettily decorated. All enjoyed themselves at the ball. On Sunday the picnic on the villa grounds was the event and with games and other amusements, an enjoyable day was spent. The picnicers left on a late train Sunday evening announcing having had the time of their lives.

Among those prominent at the Boyes Springs diamond Sunday were station agent A. L. Gale and brother, who represented the S. P. Co.; Constable Mouyer was an interested spectator, Ollie Wilkerson and Bill Bomhoff, our well known laundry men, were also there and rooted for their favorite team; Jim Baines was in the crowd with his latest style green hat. Some class, Jim. Brother reporter Art Hickman had a new uniform which resembled a horseman. He had a pair of leggings that reminded one of those that the famous Captain Boyes used to wear, formerly owner of Boyes Spring. Well, his necktie we won't say much about that, but it was brown, bought at Henry Bates, Sonoma, so Art said. Jack Stephens, the famous actor's voice seems to have left him. He was there but did not root, therefore, the defeat of the home team. All the Boyes Springs team followers wore a sad look after the game. The U. S. laundry brought a large crowd with them, principally beautiful laundry girls who showed they were true blue by kidding their boys along to victory, and there were others.

PARENTE LIQUOR LICENSE REVOKED

Board of Supervisors Sustain Charges Brought by Officer Ryan Against Parent's Villa and Deprive the Resort of its License

The charges brought by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan against the Parente Villa for violating the liquor ordinance of Sonoma County were sustained by the Board of Supervisors on Friday of last week and the liquor license of the resort was cancelled.

Quite a number of witnesses testified against the resort and there was no doubt in the minds of the District Attorney's office and the members of the Board who sat in judgment on the case of the guilt of the members was unanimous.

The Parente Bros., who own the villa, have about $35,000 invested in the resort, which had been conducted strictly in accordance with the law would have proved a good investment to its owners. However, the place was leased to parties who had no regard for the law, and the owners have had to pay the penalty. The day has passed in Sonoma Valley when our resorts are above the law. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

Charge Against Jack London Dismissed

At the conclusion of the cross examination of the third witness in the case against Jack London and John Burns in Judge Atchison's Court Monday afternoon, says the Press Democrat, District Attorney Clarence Lea moved to dismiss the charge as the evidence did not warrant a conviction in his opinion.

The charge was assault and battery and was preferred by J. W. Shepard after a quarrel in which London and Burns were called upon to interfere. The evidence shows that Shepard was armed and had made threats against Burns and that in grappling with his wife the weapon was discharged twice the trigger being pulled by Shepard.

Mrs. Shepard stated that her husband was striking her with one hand while grasping the weapon with the other and that she called upon Burns to help her which he did. London had been summoned and he jerked the gun out of Shepard's hand.

Prominent Glen Ellen Women Passes Away

Mrs. Kate C. Trowbridge, widow of the late N. S. Trowbridge of Glen Ellen, passed away at the King's Daughters' Home in Oakland last Saturday night after an illness of four years.

The deceased was the mother of Mrs. John F. Trusty and Mrs. G. O. Cobb of Glen Ellen, Mrs. Frank Ellis and Mrs. W. F. Turner of Sutter City, Amador County, Mrs. W. M. Brown, Jr., of Taft and N. S. Trowbridge of Glen Ellen, all of whom were present at the funeral, which took place in San Francisco on Monday.

Badly Burned

J. F. Trusty, the popular proprietor of the Hotel Chauvet, Glen Ellen, met with a painful accident last Monday afternoon. While assisting in the kitchen of the hotel a pot of hot grease which was on the stove was overturned and the grease spilled over his shoulders and back while he was on his knees cleaning the range. He was badly burned and suffered intensely. At latest accounts he was improving and it is not thought that serious results will follow.

A Movement to Recall Supervisor J. H. Weise

The "Mother's League" of this valley, which has yet to be organized, will start a movement to recall Supervisor J. H. Weise, and will place a candidate in the field to replace him. This is the latest rumor that has been spread broadcast over Sonoma county and the threatened recall is taken seriously by the misinformed. But those familiar with this latest "kick" against a conscientious official look upon the whole thing as one big joke.

Of course there can be a recall election, much to the disgust of the taxpayers who will have to foot the bills, but what will it amount to in the end? The head and front of Supervisor Weise's offending is this: At the session of the Board of Supervisors held on Thursday of last week, backed up by a petition of nearly 400 voters, he moved to rescind an obnoxious and illegal resolution passed at the February meeting of the Supervisors limiting the number of liquor licenses between Eldridge and Schellville to eleven. The motion of Supervisor Weise to rescind was seconded by Supervisor King and passed unanimously by their fellow members. This was a wrong righted, and any effort on the part of agitators in this valley to start a row over Supervisor Weise's action in the matter will be severely rebuked at the polls, should the "Mothers League," or any other organization of mischief makers and trouble-breeds in this valley be able to secure 300 signatures to the recall petition. As everybody signs petitions these days, the necessary signatures will be obtained without a doubt and Sonoma Valley will once again be thrown into the throes of another "reform" contest, which will have but one ending—the complete vindication of a Supervisor who has conscientiously aimed to do his duty in a broad-minded way as a servant of the people without fear or favor.

Go to it, ye agitators! Cinch the taxpayers, stir up more strife in our midst, and show your ill will toward an honest and conscientious official who refused to take program from one G. J. K. Bigelow. Turn on your screws of discontent and discord on a long suffering and thoroughly disgusted community, to the end that the good people of Sonoma Valley be kept in a constant state of turmoil and trouble by those who are following the blind leadership of an egotistical and senseless dissensionist and trouble-breeder.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. WM. HELBERG

Expires Immediately After Entering the Leix Sanitarium for Treatment

Mrs. Meta Helberg, wife of Wm. Helberg, a prominent farmer of this valley, died very suddenly last Wednesday.

The deceased had been ailing for about a year, and on the day of her death she was taken to the Leix Sanitarium to be operated upon for the removal of a tumor. While on the way from her home to this place she had several sinking spells, but was revived. Immediately after reaching the sanitarium she collapsed and passed away within a few minutes, the immediate cause of death being heart failure.

Mrs. Helberg was the mother of Wm. A. Werner and Miss E. Helberg. She was a native of Bremen, Germany, and aged 52 years and 8 months.

The funeral will take place from Bates' undertaking parlors today (Saturday) and the interment will be in Tulocay Cemetery, Napa.

Trudgen Surprise Party

BY ART HICKMAN.

Whoever was the instigator of the farewell party given in honor of Miss Beth Trudgen deserves all the credit in the world, for a prettier affair would seem an impossibility than the one that was tendered this young Sonoma belle. Having been fortunate enough to receive an invitation to this party I was only too willing to take advantage of the same and arrived on the scene at eleven o'clock, finding the curbstone in front of Woodmen Hall lined a block long with numerous automobiles and the prettiest turnout in the valley. Upon being greeted at the door by the one stationed there to give you a hearty welcome and make you feel as though you were absolutely necessary to make the affair a complete success, we were ushered into a ball room where fifty or sixty couples comprising the youthful beauty of the valley were waltzing to the strains of a large orchestra. This orchestra was later relieved by the Hayes Springs boys and there was music and dancing aplenty which continued until the wee small hours when Manager Lynch announced the supper march, where at least fifty couples were seated at a midnight spread where dull care was left behind.

Baseball News

Sonoma won from the Sperry Flour nine last Sunday by a score of 6 to 1. The game was replete with good plays and the many fans present showed their appreciation.

The following boarded the train on Wednesday morning for the city: Mrs. Fred Lowell, Will Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Townsend.

Henry Gundlach was a guest at Rhinefarm on Friday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Gundlach have just returned from an extended trip through the eastern states.

Fred Batto motored to Petaluma on Wednesday last. He was accompanied by Mrs. Henry Hansen, Mrs. Chas. Swanson of Seattle and Miss Adle Andrieux.

Miss Pauline Schrenkberg, who has been the guest of her aunt Mrs. D. Collie at Bud Nest Cottage for several days, left for her city home on Tuesday.

Charles Saylor, the popular section foreman of the N. W. P., on Friday last had his crew cleaning up around the station house at Vineburg and now it looks as fine as silk.

Eph Cutter, Gus Seipp, John Tracy and Charles Cutter motored on Sunday last to Vacaville and Winters and they report a full crop of fruit in that famous fruit belt this year.

If all the rest of the members of the Sonoma Native Sons Drum Corps take as much interest in their coming outing as Louie Ronquie of this place does it is bound to be a success.

Lawrence Hunter went to San Francisco on Sunday where he purchased a swell Harley Davidson motorcycle. It is a peach, but it don't look good to me, Lawrence. No back action.

Ellis Vernon, one of Vineburg's popular young men, has led to the altar Miss Minnie Armstrong of Long Beach. The couple were married in Los Angeles. They were schoolmates when children in Oregon.

On the BUENA VISTA RANCH, one mile east of Sonoma City, at which the following property will be disposed of:

- Sixty dairy cows.
- Fifteen heaves.
- One bull.
- Thirty-six yearlings.
- Eleven calves.
- Two horses.
- Two spring wagons.
- One lumber wagon.
- Mowing machine and rake.
- Dairy and farm implements.

Easy Jim:

Now don't you think that Archie McKiver, that bright young reporter of the Index at El Verano, is paying too much attention to that Red Light journal, the Expositor, that for years has been a detriment to Sonoma Valley. I think they are looking for free advertising and are only too glad to get it. Pass it by in silence, Archie, and it will quit its ridiculous noise in a short time.

Fannie Ferndale

We find on our desk a cordial invitation from the Sonoma Drum Corps to attend its outing and dance at Sonoma Grove June 1st and on the list we find the names of Fannie Ferndale, Ethel Eastlake, Jessie Jay, Mirnie Madden, Mazie May, Olivia Oliver and last but not least Viola Vineburg. All right boys you furnish the drums and Vineburg will be there with the belles.

EASY JIM.

THE RECALL OF SUPERVISOR WEISE

BY CHAS. SPINDLER.

Mr. Editor:

Another phase of the Jekyll-Hyde acrobats seems to be coming to the front and is to be forced upon the poor mortals of tax-payers of Sonoma valley in the shape of a threatened recall election to oust Supervisor Weise from office.

Seemingly he has some backbone and does not take orders as desired or commanded by the Boss, the Anti-Saloon and Anti-Roadhouse Leagues.

I do not have the pleasure of being acquainted with Mr. Weise. In fact I voted against him. But what I have seen of his work and how he has handled the public road funds and the men under him doing an honest day's work pleases me, and I say Mr. Weise is conducting the affairs of his office in a satisfactory way. To please all is very difficult and to please one especially desirous to either rule or ruin is absolutely impossible. I have said on previous occasions when I showed without being contradicted "who is a desirable citizen" that the curse of our valley in particular and Sonoma county in general is the big land owner, and if he is given a chance to become an autocrat and make us spell liberty with E. A. (liberte) then the taxpayer must wake up. The money wasted on a fake recall election would be sufficient to give the steel bridges across Sonoma river a much-needed coat of paint. But what does an Anti-Saloon League employer, an Anti-Roadhouse agitator and a Mother Goose association originator care for the masses if the poor Supervisor does not obey his orders.

And a reason is easily found. Mothers who have grown up sons of mature age who cannot control those big children any more and to prevent a sip of alcoholic drink will insist upon the Supervisor to close all John Barleycorn places. Minors are not permitted to enter these. Only those mothers with sons over 21 are concerned, but that concerns the Boss very little. While the Anti-Saloon League failed to furnish enough money and the Anti-Roadhouse League did not work quite in accordance with existing laws, here is a new chance—a good, chemically pure Mother's Association, whether with a State charter as such or simply a few assuming that good sounding title—anything fair or unfair as long as the Boss succeeds with his command. Raus mit'em.

Now, Mr. Editor, if your readers recollect what I wrote in the Index-Tribune last October with reference to Mr. Weise they will now see that I had this coming and all following recalls in mind, well knowing that a man with common sense and sound feet able to support him without the use of some one else's crutches, soon would invoke the ill-feeling of the Boss. Luckily the boss is but a poor imitator, however, mischievous just the same.

Do you recollect when he awoke and galvanized into life that dead body called the Chamber of Commerce of Sonoma and in his non-military goose-wobbling step marched a few chronics as a committee of said dead or defunct association up to the meeting room of our Board of Supervisors to use his strength and that magic wand, "Recall."

"Puck's" motto: "What fools these mortals be," suits the occasion, but I trust that the majority of our sane taxpayers will agree with me that Mr. Weise should not be recalled, but have our support to finish what he has started and to continue good, honest service of which we have a fair sample.

CHAS. SPINDLER.

WILL ATTEMPT TO RECALL J. H. WEISE

So-Called "Mother's League" is After the Scalp of an Offending Supervisor Who Dared Do His Duty

You must go away from home to hear the news in an old but trite saying. The following from the Petaluma Argus of a late date exemplifies this old saw:

"As a result of the rescinding of the resolution limiting the number of saloons in a certain district in Sonoma Valley to eleven as adopted by the Board of Supervisors some time ago, and the granting of four new licenses during the present week's session of the Board, a movement has been started in Sonoma valley for the organization of a 'Mother's League,' which will have for its object the recall of Supervisor J. H. Weise of that district and the election of a new supervisor to succeed him."

"Many letters have already been mailed out to secure the attendance of the mothers of the valley at a big meeting which is to be called at an early date, the news being fully confirmed on Saturday and it is proposed to get twenty petitions in the field at as early a date as possible, praying for the recall election. The report was rumored on Friday afternoon and on Saturday it was confirmed by residents of the valley."

"It seems that the rescinding of the resolution providing for the reduction of saloons and the granting thereafter of several more licenses, has stirred up the old trouble in the valley and the recall will be the result. If it is carried through it will be the first use of the recall in Sonoma county since such action was made lawful and it is stirring up things in good shape according to general report. It is stated that it will take over three hundred signers to the recall petition and those who are at the head of the crusade state that they will have no trouble in securing that number. It is not as yet known who will be made the candidate for the office in the recall proceedings."

Fined One Hundred Dollars

Landlord Peterson of Peterson's Resort, opposite Boyes Springs ball park, who was arrested one day last week on complaint of Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan for selling liquor without a license, was fined $100 last Wednesday by Judge Campbell.

Game starts 1:30 sharp at Boyes Springs Sunday.

WOULD SHORTEN ROAD TO THE STATE HIGHWAY

El Verano Development Association Takes Initiative to Construct Road to Connect Sonoma and Napa Valleys with State Highway

James H. Baines, President of the El Verano Development Association, and three auto loads of boosters for Sonoma and Napa Valleys, made a tour of inspection last Wednesday through the Foster ranch, alongside the Northwestern Pacific railroad, to the mouth of Petaluma Creek near Black Point. The object of the trip was to map out a feasible route for a public highway to connect the Sonoma and Napa Valleys with the State highway at or near Novato by bridging Petaluma creek above Black Point.

The route mapped out will shorten the distance between Sonoma and Napa Valley towns and the State highway between 14 and 15 miles and keep this section on the map.

The El Verano Development Association representatives after going over the ground were convinced the plan was entirely feasible and will now try and interest the Supervisors of Sonoma, Napa and Marin counties in the project, which if carried out will be of immense advantage to the many people of those counties.

The proposed road, which would cost at least $30,000, has often been discussed the past ten years, but it remained for the El Verano Development Association, one of the most influential civic bodies of Sonoma Valley, to make the first move to carry out the much-mooted project, and we trust not without success. Among those in the party who went over the ground of the projected highway last Wednesday were Jas. Baines, Dr. E. L. Parramore, H. H. Granice, Dr. A. M. Thomson, Thos. H. Baines, A. D. Graham, Mayor M. E. Cummings, Louis Lamotte, O. C. Benjamin, Leo Baines, Phil Rossi, S. E. Button, Raoul Emparan, R. Press Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ryan of El Verano are entertaining a little native daughter at their home, it being born Thursday.

SONOMA VALLEY NEWS ITEMS.

As Reported by That Live Wire, Archibald McKiver, Who is Always Right There With the Goods.

T. Hutchinson, supervisor, was a guest at Boyes Springs Sunday.

Joe Enfield, well known contractor, was an S. P. passenger for Oakland Sunday.

Mrs. Louis Lamotte of Oakland is the guest of her husband at the El Verano Villa.

The El Verano Juniors won from Sonoma last Saturday at Sonoma in a lively game of ball. The score was 21 to 13. This is two out of three and El Verano holds the championship, and is ready for all comers.

One day last week as D. Grane of Crane's Hotel was leading a horse out of his barn the horse pulled back dislocating his shoulder. The injury was painful and will lay Mr. Crane up for some time. At this writing he is getting along as well as could be expected. Dr. Leix is attending physician.

In Sunday morning's Press Democrat an article was published taken from the Petaluma Argus that steps were being taken to recall our supervisor, Weise, by some mother's club, much the same as the Sonoma Board of Trade—never heard of. The article goes on to read that the rescinding of the resolution providing for the reduction of the saloons and the granting of several more licenses has stirred up the old trouble in the valley, which is a lie, as there has been no howl in the Sonoma Valley since the resolution was passed by the Board limiting the saloons, and it was the only thing the present Board of Supervisors could have done, and if it had not acted in a wise way the trouble would have never ceased. We would ask the editor of the Petaluma Argus to look over the large petition that was signed by the principal property owners of this valley, and he might be enlightened as to the feeling here in regard to the resolution. Or send one of his representatives to this place and get the right dope, as printing these misleading things in his paper will bring him nothing. A recall election would be another tax on the taxpayers and Weise would be elected by a large majority to the office he is so ably representing.

BOYES HOT SPRINGS HAPPENINGS.

By Art Hickman.

Ashton Stevens, the journalist, is due to arrive in camp this Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Eaton entertained at a dinner party Sunday at their home here.

Judge Harry Melvin and wife are rusticated at the springs and are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Parramore.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hill of Woodleaf Park entertained Miss Emily Diabrow at their home this week. Many of her admirers are looking forward to another visit. Archie McKiver lay off!

Edward P. Levy and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard spent the week end between their country home at Lagunitas and Boyes Springs. Levy will be remembered by many of the valley people for he was at the head of the Chutes in the metropolis for fifteen years.

The ball game Sunday proved to be just as predicted, the liveliest game of the season. The undefeated Boyes Springs team, playing in remarkably poor luck, met their Waterloo at the hands of the United States Laundry team from San Francisco. The latter organization proved a very fast combination of youth who could run bases like a rinder and hit way up in a high average mark. No credit should be taken away from this ball team for they played a most scientific game. The Boyes Springs team put up a very strong game and held the score down by many clever plays. Next Sunday's game will surely prove a winner. Chief White of San Francisco is sending up twelve of his sturdy policemen to compete with the Boyes Springs nine.

Nels Long is just recovering from a severe cold and is again as bright and cheerful as is his set of teeth. Too deep?

The Sierra Walking Club spent the week end at the springs and enjoyed the dance on Saturday night and a hike the following day.

The Misses Anna Laurenzi and Mary Cummings, the two young ladies in charge of the hotel office here, were kept busy handling the large crowds Saturday and Sunday.

A new addition to the Boyes Springs theatre orchestra is Leon Carroll, who hails from San Rafael. He has many acquaintances in the valley, having presided over the piano at numerous events, and when it comes to ragtime he is the class.

On Sunday evening Frank Goad entertained at his home a number of the villagers, a few among them being Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stevens Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lull, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hill, Miss Diabrow, Earle Caldwell, Rudy Lichenberg and myself.

Archie McKiver, the life of the Sonoma Index, is always the first to appear on the scene of action Sundays and accompanied by his father they make a very picturesque couple. 'Tis not every son in the valley of the moon that will take his father to a weekly ball game and also enjoy the going just as much as if he was surrounded with a bevy of beauty.

Jack, the barber at Boyes Springs, enjoyed and also celebrated his forty-first birthday last Sunday. He was introduced to Mr. Gibson about twenty times and was also made acquainted with John Dewar and after shaking hands with Mr. Schlitz was called to dinner to a birthday spread to devour a couple of squabs cooked a la Van DeKar. All the home guards are sorry that he does not have a birthday once a week.
